This is a patition filed by Mr. Solomon Teate Dunby, described in the patition as a share and general broker, asking for a recoiving order and an adjudication of bankruptey. Section 8 of the Bunkruptoy Ordinance of 1891 has been most assemly amonded by sect. 5 of Ordinance 6 of 1892 by the addition of this provise: - Provided that it shall be lawful in the discretion of the fourt to refuse the Order (z. c., the Receiving Order) unless satisfied that there are or will be substantial assets for divi-The statement of revenue and expenditure for sion among the creditors." It is useless to aporeditor. DISCHARGE OF A BANKRUPT. Mr. Hahn appeared in person to apply for his discharge His Lordship-Well, Mr. Hahn, I suppose you have nothing further to add to the facts in the files. The Receiver has furnished me with a renort. I have gone carefully through the file and into the proceedings in this case, and this is my decision. This is an application under section 27 of the Bankruptcy (Irdiaance of 1891 by Ferdinand Albert Carl Haho for his discharge. It appears from the report of the trustee though the question asked dues not bear exactly. Many seemed to think that the Nery would not that the bunkrupt filed his petition on the 18th April, 1893, and was adjudicated bankrupt on h July following. The only dividend is one of 6 31 per cent, declared on 23rd May last, when nassoured debts due from the bankrupt, proved and admitted, amounted to 27.876. The sums realized from the stock-in-trade, book debts, and a life policy amounted, after deduct ing expenses, to $496.93. The reut of the shop and premises occupied by the bankrupt was four months and upwards in arrear at the date of his filing his patition, and the sum of $715has been paid on this account to the landlords who were fully secured. In my opinion the bankrupt should have filed his petition sconer. and should not have continued to trade after he knew, or at least, had means of knowing, himself to be insolvent. That fact, as well as the smallness of the dividend paid, amounting to only 6.81 per cent, precludes me from granting an immediate discharge. The bankrupt afforded the trustee every facility and assistance he could in winding up his affairs, and no objection The COLONIAL TREASUREE. The present of the first bulf.
